

the WYOMING STATE LIBRARY... WHAT'S IN IT FOR YOU?

The WSL is rich with resources for Wyoming residents and state employees alike. Highlighted below are just a few of the programs and services we make available.

STATE & FEDERAL PUBLICATIONS DEPOSITORY

The WSL catalogs state and federal government information so you can access selected government documents and electronic resources. Visit library.wyo.gov/pubs to learn more about what we save and why.

DIGITAL COLLECTIONS

The WSL is proud to present six engaging online collections that shine a light on the history of Wyoming. From historical newspapers to trademarks and inventors, you're sure to learn something new about the Cowboy State. Visit the Digital Collections online (library.wyo.gov/collections) to get started!

POWERFUL DATABASES AND TONS OF DIGITAL CONTENT

GoWYLD.net (gowyld.net) is your gateway to eBooks, eAudiobooks, journals, and research databases. The WSL partners with University of Wyoming Libraries to make our combined resources available to all Wyoming residents. Access is free to Wyomingites and available 24/7.

EXPERT REFERENCE SERVICES

Our reference and research service provides assistance to state employees, historians, genealogists, and the general public. Get help finding reliable materials—using both print and online resources—by calling the Service Desk at (307) 777-6333 or visit our homepage (library.wyo.gov) and click “Ask a Librarian.”

INTERLIBRARY LOAN

If we don't have what you're looking for, chances are good we can get it through interlibrary loan. Place your requests by calling the Service Desk at (307) 777-6333. Best of all, there's no charge for this service!

REMOTE OFFICE SUPPORT

The WSL has meeting spaces, media equipment, conference phones, and even a Smart Board available for use by state employees. We have Chromebooks for in-library use and free wireless Internet access is provided throughout the building. Call (307) 777-6333 to reserve a room for your next meeting and check out library.wyo.gov/remote-office to learn more about our meeting spaces.

the WYOMING STATE LIBRARY PUBLICATIONS DEPOSITORY PROGRAM

The Wyoming State Library is required by statute to maintain a state publications depository program. All state agencies are required to contribute their publications to the depository. Publications are defined as items of published information, regardless of format, paid for with state funds, directed by executive order, or mandated by legislation, and which are produced for public distribution.

ITEMS TO BE DEPOSITED WITH THE STATE LIBRARY

- Budgets, budget requests, & financial reports
- Conference proceedings
- Books (including commercially published items)
- Plans/report drafts available for public comment
- Environmental impact statements (draft & final)
- Journals & magazines
- Laws, regulations, rules
- Legislative reports
- Maps
- Newsletters
- Newspapers
- Planning & evaluation documents
- Research reports & studies
- Standards documentation

ITEMS NOT TO BE DEPOSITED

- Meeting agendas, minutes
- Advertisements, product catalogs
- Announcements, applications, forms
- Brochures, flyers, posters
- Conference/workshop programs
- Conference/workshop registration information
- Correspondence (letters, email)
- Handbooks, training manuals
- Internal or working drafts of reports
- Press releases
- Event programs (theater, music, sports, other)
- Requests for proposal
- State records (birth certificates, drivers licenses)
- Text of speeches

Please see library.wyo.gov/pubs for complete information about the program.

The Wyoming State Library is one of six divisions of the Department of Administration & Information, along with Human Resources, Budget, Economic Analysis, General Services, and Construction Management. The State Library's mission is to support Wyoming's libraries and to serve as a resource for Wyoming citizens, and state government employees.